

DOCUMENT D: Sarah Nothing to Say

Minutes of the Court of Quarter Sessions, NYC Slave Revolt of 1712

Archival Document

Transcription: ... and Sarah were severely asked if they or any of them know or have anything to say for themselves why The Court [] to judgment and execution against them on these premises ought not to proceed who say nothing as before they have said...”

Source: Minutes of the Quarter Sessions, 1694-1731, pp 223.